

Dear Friend of Atlantic Voices;

Thank you for considering a donation to the Atlantic Voices May 2020 concert.

On May 24th, Atlantic Voices Choir offer a musical tribute to the Atlantic fishery with its hardships and joys..

Hook, Line and Singers features favourites such as "Let me fish off Cape St. Mary's", "Make and Break Harbour" and "Squid-jiggin' Ground" .

The concert takes place at Centretown United Church (507 Bank Street) at 3 pm, with preshow entertainment by the Fumblin Fingers band. A silent auction and refreshments will follow.'

It is through the generous support of sponsors like you that Atlantic Voices, which is a self-supporting choir, is able to bring the rich culture of Atlantic Canada to our Ottawa-Gatineau area audience which usually numbers 400 people.

Details of how you can make a difference, including sponsorship categories, are on the second sheet. An added incentive for our sponsors is that the Atlantic Voices website will continue to include a link to your website for five months after the Concert. Our choir uses social media extensively in our publicity.

We hope that you will decide to contribute, and to join us at our concert..

If you have any questions about the concert or the sponsorship, please do not hesitate to contact us.
